Based upon a review of your and/or your parent(s) income, the information below is needed before we can determine your financial aid eligibility. The following information is needed because:

- The interest reported on your/your parent(s) federal tax return does not correspond to the cash/savings/checking reported on the FAFSA.
- You and/or your parent(s) reported one or more rental properties or partnerships on your/their federal tax return but there is no investment net worth reported on the FAFSA.
- You and/or your parent(s) reported a business on your/their federal tax return but there is no business net worth reported on the FAFSA.
- Your and/or your parent(s) asset information was left blank on your FAFSA.
