MR. DEREK FRANKS

Like his favorite team growing up, Derek Franks is truly one of the “Boys of Summer”, born on a hot August evening in 1984. Derek grew up playing Little League and Babe Ruth baseball and had a Fresno Bee paper route for 4 years. He attended Kingsburg High School and played a little baseball there as well. Derek’s position as a catcher gave him a perspective of the field that he also enjoys today, though not from ground level. Instead, Derek views the field from the vantage point of his office at Chukchansi Park where he is the President of the Fresno Grizzlies.

After graduating from Kingsburg High, Derek attended Reedley College for two years. While here, he worked on completing his general education classes and thought a lot about what he wanted to do with his life. During his tenure at Reedley, while applying for admission to Fresno State and other universities, Derek had a conversation with his father that set him on the path to where he is today. Dad asked him a simple question: “What’s your dream job?” Derek replied that he would be the General Manager of the Los Angeles Dodgers if he could. Soon after that conversation, Derek attended a job fair at the new Triple-A baseball stadium in Fresno and, after a couple of attempts, he got a job taking tickets during the games. He accepted a position as an unpaid intern, working 40 hours a week in the ticket office. During this time, Derek transferred from Reedley College to Fresno State, earning a degree in Mass Communication & Journalism. Two years ago, he was inducted into their MCJ Hall of Fame.

Derek is in his 15th season with the Fresno Grizzlies, working his way from unpaid intern to Ticket Manager, Sales Manager, Director of Sales, Vice President of Sales, Executive Vice President/General Manager, and now President. Prior to the 2015 season, at age 30, Derek was named General Manager of the Grizzlies, and, at the end of that season, he was chosen the Pacific Coast League Executive of the Year.

Derek’s roots in the valley are deep. He has settled in Fresno with his wife Sarah, children Joni, Cal, and baby #3 due in June. He is proud of the community he grew up in and of the local colleges he attended, which helped shape him to be the man he is today. Derek no longer dreams of being the General Manager of the Dodgers; he has found his dream job and dream life.
