

Strategic Planning FEEDBACK FORUMS

The strategic planning committee is excited to announce our upcoming Feedback Forums! In anticipation of the creation for our new strategic plan the Presidents Advisory Cabinet and the Strategic Planning Committee met for a workshop to brainstorm possible wording for our new strategic plan including our: Mission, Vision, Values and Goals.

Presentations are being made at many committee meetings across the college. The possible wording will also be available online. Campus websites will list the information under the following tabs: About Us: College Planning: Strategic Planning.

Forums will be held at all three locations: Reedley, Madera, and Oakhurst.

Please plan to attend one of these forums to give your feedback. Individuals can give provide personal feedback or they can provide feedback from their committee, program, division, or constituency group. Each forum will be run as an open door session allowing participants to come and go according to their schedules. The forums are one hour long and representatives from the Strategic Planning Committee will be on hand to answer questions and gather your input. Feedback can also be provided via email to linda.cooley@reedleycollege.edu please make sure the subject of the email is entitled "Feedback Forum"
