Reedley College proudly serves those who have served and their families through the dedicated support of the Veterans Center. Designed to assist student Veterans and military-connected students, the center provides resources and guidance to help them transition into college life and achieve their academic and career goals.

At the Veterans Center, you'll find a welcoming environment and access to essential services and resources, including:

- Veteran Student Success Orientation for new Veteran and military-connected students
- Workshops and information sessions on campus and community resources
- Access to computers, printers, and study space
- Complimentary coffee, snacks, water bottles, and more
- Comfortable lounge area for relaxing between classes
- Noise-canceling headsets for focused study time
- Free Scantrons and basic school supplies
- Laptop and calculator loan program
- A wide range of printed materials and guides tailored to Veterans' needs

More than just a resource center, the Veterans Center is a community—where you can connect with fellow student Veterans, supportive staff, and faculty ready to help you succeed at Reedley College and beyond.
